

CISB grant type 2, extended work on an already ongoing and financed project

General information

Project title in Portuguese and English

Main technological area

Objectives

State-of-the-art

Expected results

Industry relevance

Description of the existing project

Project team members

Main participants (organization name, type of organization, address, contact person)

Member contribution (expertise core business, technological contribution, project management experience, goal with participation)

Summary of the project

Technical approach

Key activities

Organisation, roles and workpackages

Risks and dependencies

Budget including company in kind contribution

Project reporting

The project reporting should include at least:

- Public summary
- Report on the performed collaboration and final project outcome.
- In what way has the collaboration benefited the whole of the project?
- Which opportunities are available for future collaboration, i.e., possible funding strategies, prototype.